COMMERCIAL INTELLIGENCE

SATURDAY EVENING, MAY 28.

CONSOLS in London yesterday declined ⅛ to 102⅜, but French Rentes were unchanged at 120 and Rupee Paper higher by ¼ in Fours and ⅛ in Fours-and-a-half at 85 and 91½, respectively.

Coffee and Cocoanut Oil are as last quoted. Linseed and Rapeseed are unaltered. Wheat firm and slightly dearer to arrive.

Copper Braziers are quoted at £69, a decline of 10s. Piece-goods in Manchester remain quiet but steady at previous prices.

The Liverpool Cotton market yesterday closed firm, sales 10,000 bales, and to-day's report is quiet, sales 8,000, prices being unaltered throughout. In New York yesterday ready Mid.-Uplands were unaltered at 10 13-16 cents, but August shipment had advanced from 10·80 to 10·85, and to-day ready has risen to 10⅞ and August to 10·93 cents per lb. We subjoin our usual comparison of the statistical position. During the week the total visible supply has decreased by 100,000 and the stock in Liverpool by 52,000 bales, but the excess over previous years is still sufficient to account for the lower prices ruling, especially when taken in conjunction with the probable extent of next American crop.

The American Crop figures to date give the following comparisons with the two previous seasons :—

	1881.	1880.	1879.
Week's Receipts	37,000	21,000	16,000

,, Stock in the Ports	494,000	439,000	255,000
Saturday's Receipts	5,000	2,000	2,000

The total visible supply of cotton for all Europe on the 27th instant compares as follows with the two previous years :—

	1881.	1880.	1879.
Total supply of all kinds	2,830,000	2,429,610	1,875,470
,, ,, Surats	337,000	578,150	153,930

For the U. K. only the figures are :—

,, Fair Dhollera	4½d.	5d.	5 7-16d
Difference	1 13-16d.	1 11-16d.	1½d

EXCHANGE.—Bar Silver in London continues unchanged at 51⅜d. per oz., and we have had a very quiet day here, next to nothing having been done, and rates in every respect unaltered, say :—

Bank Bills on demand	1s. 7 23-32d.	per rupee.
Do. telegraphic	1s. 7 11-16d.	,,
Do. 3 months' sight	1s. 7 13-16d.	,,
Credits, 3 ,, ,,	1s. 7 15-16d.	,,
Documents, 3 ,, ,,	1s. 7 31-32d.	,,
Francs, 3 ,, ,,	2f. 10⅛c.	,,

On Calcutta rates remain at 1-16 per cent. premium for demand, 9-16 per cent. discount for 60 days' sight.

GOVERNMENT PAPER has undergone quite an excitement to-day, and a large business has been done at rapidly advancing rates. The start was given by the stronger accounts both from London and Calcutta, but there has been a strong speculative element apparent in paper for some time past, which only wanted very slight inducement to declare itself in a marked manner. At one time to day Fours touched Rs. 104 and Fours-and-a-half Rs. 111¼, but at the close there were sellers at two annas under these figures. Port Trust Bonds have advanced to Rs. 103.

SHARES continue firm, and in a number of cases are again higher. Bank of Bombays are ½ per cent. higher at Rs. 751½. Colaba Land Company's shares are Rs. 5 lower, Port Canning Rs. 2½ higher. In Fort Press there is an advance of Rs. 25 and in Sassoon of Rs. 10, but Mofussils are Rs. 5 lower. Spinning and Weaving Mill shares are firmly held. Alliance have advanced Rs. 50, Sassoon Rs. 25, Coorla, Hindustan, and National Rs. 10 per share.

COTTON has witnessed another extremely dull day. Small supplies and the tenor of Reuter's telegrams encourage holders to stand out for very full prices, but exporters, on the other hand, are doing next to nothing, and transactions are mainly confined to purchases covering in local sales. Good Dholleras for 10th June we quote at Rs. 183, F. G. F. Rs. 175 nominal ; no buyers.

SEEDS and WHEAT remain without quotable movement.

FREIGHTS are very quiet at previous figures.

IN PIECE-GOODS there is nothing new to report. The demand, both ready and to arrive, is very slack, and stocks are a long way in excess of current requirements.

COALS are quiet but steady at Rs. 15½ for Davison's and Rs. 16½ for Cardiff.

STREET-PREACHING AT CALCUTTA.

(FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.)

CALCUTTA, MAY 29.

The trial of the missionaries was resumed yesterday before a full Bench. The prosecution explained that sections 188, Penal Code, and 62, Bengal Act, authorized the Police Commissioner to make rules for the conduct of assemblies and processions in the public roads and the removal of street obstructions, subject to the approval of the Lieutenant-Governor, which meant subsequent revision and not previous sanction. If it was proved that open-air preaching was an obstruction, then the Commissioner's order was not ultra vires, and not in the jurisdiction of the Court. All magistrates were then competent to decide whether the order had been disobeyed or not. The Commissioner stated in cross-examination that he visited Wellington-square on the 28th April and received a complaint from Hindus and Mahomedans that Mr. Thoburn's congregation monopolised the seats. He then resolved to put the preaching under restrictions, and instructed police on the 6th May to endeavour to induce the preachers to desist. The first disturbance was on the 14th May. In consequence of the continued disobedience he determined to prosecute in the interests of public order. As far as his personal knowledge went no prohibition had hitherto been made. When the Town Council proposed issuing licences it was their intention to grant freely. Further hearing adjourned to 10th proximo

DURING the illness of the late Governor of Madras, the local Mail states, Her Majesty the Queen telegraphed a very kind expression of sympathy to Mrs. Adam, and her hope that Mr. Adam would recover.

A TELEGRAM from Simla reports that the Nanakhels (a section of the Mahsud Waziris) are so convinced that the surrender of the malik Mashak is necessary to the welfare of their tribe, that they have threatened if he disappears to bring in his entire family and force him to comply with their wishes.

IT has been all but settled, a Calcutta paper learns, that the duties of the Press Commissioner are to be made over to the Home Department.

THE final decision arrived at with reference to the Sibpur College case is that the offending students are never to be readmitted.

LORD RIPON is said to have personally gone into the question of the Simla allowances for subordinate officials, and to have materially altered Mr. R. B. Chapman's cheese-paring arrangements so as to reduce the cutting down of the allowances to a trifle.

THERE was very heavy rain at Simla on the 24th instant, by which some attendants at the Viceroy's Levee were caught returning to their homes, and which quite prevented the Volunteers' sports fixed for that afternoon.

HIS Lordship the Metropolitan returned to Calcutta, after his long tour in Ceylon and through the Madras Presidency, at the end of last week.

WE regret to see that Major Singleton, of the 92nd Highlanders, who was wounded in the action on the Madjuba Hill, died on the 1st of May.

THE transfer of the 78th Highlanders from this Presidency involves the loss of his command at Poorundhur to Major Forbes, and this coveted little post, the Bombay correspondent of the Pioneer hears, goes to an officer of the 89th, now at Belgaum. Dr. Bruce, who was Civil Surgeon at Poona, and more recently Deputy Surgeon-General at Kandahar, has been appointed to the medical charge of the 25th N. I. here, and to act as Deputy Surgeon-General at the same time. Thus the ugly order of serving with a native regiment has in his case been conveniently overcome.

THE Jam-e-Jamshed says that the Parsees, though they cry loud against the custom prohibiting widow marriages among the Hindoos, are virtually averse to such marriages themselves. The Jam-e is positive on the point that Parsee widowers, labouring under the weight of from two to three score years, are not ashamed to lead young brides to the hymeneal altar in preference to widows of a proportionate age. Unfortunately they can easily form such unequal matches on account of the preponderance of the female sex in their community and of the readiness of many greedy parents to marry their daughters to those whose only recommendation is money. The Jam-e thinks that reform, like charity, should begin at home.

THE Justices of the Peace here (in Bombay) have mighty little to do, and it is perhaps as well, the correspondent of the Pioneer thinks, for they do that little so badly. "They have to appoint certain members of the Municipal Corporation, and within a very short time have made at least two mistakes in their appointments—first Dr. Cook, and now Mr. D'Aguiar (an Assistant to the Commissary-General) has been objected to, while it is also doubtful whether Mr. Bapty should not have been. Mr. D'Aguiar, under very good legal advice, was fighting against the objection raised to him by reading the Act in a way different to the Chairman. I must say it appears, like many others, to read equally well both ways, and like those things in general (and in general orders as well I may add) requires amendment if really desired to be clear. However, the Justices might at least take the trouble to make sure of what they are doing."

IN his review of the Police administration report of the Central Provinces for 1880, the Chief Commissioner gives his officers the following piece of advice:—"The Chief Commissioner desires me to ask you to bear in mind that travelling and rushing about are less essential than a careful watch over the investigation of important cases."

WE recently quoted from a Calcutta paper a statement that the Secretary of State had declined to sanction any extension of "Sir Ashley Eden's term of office as Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal;" and that "even the period of six months, during which he was employed on the Simla Army Commission, will not be allowed to count as a deduction from his five years' tenure." It was further stated that Sir Ashley Eden "based his claim for extension of tenure of the Lieutenant-Governorship" on the ground that he has not yet completed the term of 35 years, for which all members of the Civil Service are entitled to serve. The Pioneer now says that these statements, so circumstantially made, are without any foundation whatever. Sir Ashley Eden has not referred any such question; consequently the Secretary of State has not decided it.

FROM the report of the Health Officer of the Port of Calcutta for the year 1880, it appears that the number of cases of sunstroke or heat apoplexy was 29 as against 3 in the previous year, but there was only one fatal case as against two. There was a very general improvement in the health of the port, the admissions to hospital numbering 2,005, of whom 49 died, as compared with 2,126, of whom 61 died, in 1879. "The daily average number of European sailors living on board ship in port is estimated at 1,400, and it is believed that the number living on shore averaged about 250. Taking these figures as a basis for the calculation, the annual death-rate among the former was 32 per mille as against 20 per mille among the latter.

FROM the end of the current month the Government Wards' Institution in Calcutta will finally close its doors, the local Government, in view of its doubtful success combined with its excessive unpopularity, having decided to abolish the institution from that date. As regards the education of Wards in the future, the Board is to arrange, in communication with the Director of Public Instruction and the Collectors, the best course to be followed in each case, but the Lieutenant-Governor is entirely opposed to the Wards being educated at their own homes.

THE rumours regarding cholera in the Punjab, though not entirely without foundation, the Civil and Military Gazette says, are not such as need cause alarm. A few sporadic cases have occurred at Delhi during the past fortnight, but the greatest care has been taken, and there seems every prospect of its dying out. A solitary case is said to have occurred in the town of Patiala, and some half dozen cases in a village near Pinjore, at the foot of the Simla hills; but so far as we are aware, no other cases have been reported, and the mortality of the whole province from this disease has not at any time this year exceeded two or three cases per diem.

IN the Viceregal Legislative Council on the 25th inst., a Bill was introduced by Major Baring and passed into law during the sitting, giving effect to the intervention signed two years ago between the Governor-General of British India and the Governor-General of Portuguese India, regarding their respective systems of monies, weights, and measures. In asking that the Council rules might be suspended to allow the Bill to be proceeded with and passed, Major Baring, while regretting the necessity for suspension and delay in dealing with the question, explained that the matter was urgent, and might be said to be out of the limit of ordinary discussion. The Viceroy expressed agreement in the necessity for suspension, as also the undesirability, except on occasions of similar urgency, of not suspending the rules, which gave security to the public that business would be properly considered, and that the public would have an opportunity of knowing what was proceeding in the Legislative Council. The Council adjourned for a week.

IT is reported probably that before long an Agricultural Department of the Government of India will be instituted in accordance, to some extent, with the suggestions of the Famine Commissioners on that head. The proposal went home to the Secretary of State shortly before the Government left Calcutta, and there is every likelihood of his according sanction to the same. In that case the department should come into being within a month or two. The Englishman says that the chief of the department will, according to the above proposal, be a Secretary to Government; and as to the probable incumbent of the post, we should say the choice lay between Mr. Buck and Dr. Hunter, the chances being in the order of their names. It will be seen that the proposed department differs considerably in constitution from that lately abolished.

IN consequence of Mr. Adam's untimely death, the Englishman remarks, the chance of Sir Ashley Eden being transferred to the Government of the Senior Presidency is again the subject of general discussion. "There is one element of probability now in favour of this appointment that did not exist when the Duke of Buckingham's successor was appointed. The Home Government are believed to have warmly taken up the proposals of the Army Commission, and most warmly of all the proposal to abolish the Presidential commands and to sever the connection between the civil and military administration in Madras and Bombay. That this measure will meet with much passive resistance and discontent is very probable, and the hands of the Home and the Indian Governments will be greatly strengthened, while the change is being effected, if the Civil Administration of Madras is in the charge of the former president of the Commission himself. But it is very doubtful if any consideration will be allowed to weigh against those of Parliamentary patronage."

THE Indian Mirror is not pleased that the honour of C. I. E. should have been conferred on Pundit Mohesh Chunder Nyaratna. "But what are we to say of the single Bengal appointment? We must candidly say it does little credit to the recommendation of the Bengal Government. Pundit Mohesh Chunder Nyaratna's appointment to the Order looks altogether a backstairs affair, and is not likely to raise much the value of the Order, never very high in public estimation. It is by the merest accident—by a mere fluke—he has become the Principal of the Sanskrit College in Calcutta—an office which he has not even filled for a long time. Babu Prossunno Cumar Surbadhikary, an able man, was somehow or other transferred to the Berhampore College, when Pundit Mohesh Chunder Nyaratna was put into his place. His knowledge of English is most indifferent; and, as to his proficiency in Sanskrit, we have the amplest negative evidence of it in his inability to carry on a controversy in Sanskrit at the Pundits' meeting, held at the Senate House in Calcutta some time ago. But it is evident the man knows how to play his cards, for the purpose of getting on in the world. Accordingly, under the present regimé, he has managed to become a C. I. E., while hundreds of other men, far more entitled to the honour, have been left out in the cold. The selection reflects no credit on any body concerned in the affair, and is calculated to bring the order into still further contempt. Mr. Sorabjee Shapurjee Bengali is a Parsee gentleman well known in Bombay for his public spirit, energy, and enterprise. For these qualities he is at present the Sheriff of Bombay. As a striking contrast to the Bengal nomination, Mr. Shapurjee's appointment does honour to the choice of the Bombay Government."

IN connection with the subject of the disputes between Mussalmans and Hindus in Northern India, the Allahabad paper refers to the Kukas, and the old story how, ten years ago, the massacre of the butchers at Amritsar and the attack upon the Mahomedan State of Maleir Kotla brought this sect into prominence. Their founder, Ram Singh was a quiet, earnest man, who sought merely to bring more life and zeal into the religion which he professed. The principles which he inculcated were those of moral and physical purity, and ecstatic meditation upon these attributes in the Creator. But as with the disciples of Nanuk, so with those of Ram Singh, earnestness became fiery zeal, and finally aggressive zeal. Our contemporary thinks it would be well that, at a later period, after all the present ferment has settled down, Ram Singh, the founder of the sect, should be released from his confinement and allowed to return to his home in the Punjab. It is a mistake ever to create a religious martyr. Ram Singh in his Burmah prison is a more potent religious and political influence than Ram Singh was at Amritsar, or wandering about the Punjab. The Kukas correspond with and visit him, he is still their spiritual head, and with much greater power than when present among them. His influence, when he was present among his disciples, was not, so far as is known, ever exercised for harm. He may not have been able to restrain them, but he certainly did not incite them to mischief. Unless, therefore, something is known against him by the Government of which the public is not aware, it would seem a wise and generous policy to restore the prophet to his sect, on their undertaking to maintain in future an attitude of good behaviour, such as has characterized them during the ten years that have passed since their outbreak at Maleir Kotla.

WE owe it to truth to state that all the physicians who have prescribed to their patients Grimault & Co.'s Indian Cigarettes are unanimous in telling that their effect in asthma, chronic catarrhs, and inflammation of the mucous membrane of the nose, palate and bronchia is most surprising.—Vienna Medical Gazette (Austria).

A QUEER IDEA.—The Mahratta hears that "a civil suit will soon be brought against the Poona Municipality for refunding to the Municipal treasury the sum illegally spent on the reception of the Viceroy." This is what the paper calls "just a step in the right direction."

THEFT.—Abool Raymon, residing in a room on the second-floor of a house at 2nd Don Tar Row, reported to the police on Friday last the theft of sundry gold and silver ornaments, of the collective value of Rs. 2,350. Inquiries by the police elicited the fact that the property was made away with by the complainant's wife, who has absconded.

HYDERABAD CONTINGENT.—Colonel Edward Henry Power (barrister-at-law), Madras S.C., Deputy Judge Advocate, Hyderabad Subsidiary and Contingent Forces, will complete thirty-eight years' service on the 29th inst., after which date he retires from the service. Colonel William Hands, M.S.C., succeeds him.

THE HOT MARCH OF THE 7TH FUSILIERS.—A Correspondent writes from Ahmednagar, 23rd May:—"During the grilling march of the 15th instant, of a detachment of H. M.'s 2-7th Foot (already communicated) two soldiers, I learn, fell out sick. One recovered sufficiently to proceed by rail that evening about 5-30, the other had a dangerous illness, but is now on a fair way to recovery."

HOLKAR AND SINDIA-NEEMUCH STATE RAILWAYS.—From the comparative statement showing the weight and earnings of the principal commodities carried during the month of March, 1881, on this railway, it appears that the total receipts were in weight, 11,535 tons and in money Rs. 81,018, the net increase being Rs. 27,899 in comparison to the same month last year.

DEPARTURE OF THE REGENT OF HYDERABAD.—The 21st Regiment N.I. will furnish a guard of honour of 50 rank and file with band and colours, under the command of a native officer, and will parade by 10-30 a.m. on the departure of the Co-regent of Hyderabad (Deccan), when a salute of 17 guns will be fired from the saluting battery.

ILLEGAL POSSESSION OF PROPERTY.—Bussier Dowlutmolie was on Saturday last convicted by Mr. W. Webb of having in his possession a gold neck ornament, Rs. 19-12-3 in money, and a leather purse, of the collective value of Rs. 44-13-3, reasonably suspected of having been stolen or fraudulently obtained. He failed to render a satisfactory account of how he became possessed of the property, and was sentenced to three months' rigorous imprisonment.

REFRACTORY SEAMEN.—M. Collins, a seaman of the steam-ship Titania, was on Saturday sentenced by Mr. W. Webb to six weeks' rigorous imprisonment for wilful disobedience in refusing to do duty on board that ship of which he was an articled seaman.—Albert Christoffsen, a seaman of the steam-ship Northumbria, was sent to gaol for four weeks by the same magistrate for absenting himself from duty without leave or sufficient reason from the 24th to the 27th instant.

DROWNED.—A Coroner's inquest was held on Saturday last at the Mazagon Reclamation on view of the body of Hurree Pairej. Deceased, who was about 33 years of age, and a clerk in the service of Soonderjee Kessowjee, was accidentally drowned in a quarry-hole on the Mazagon Land Estate. In pronouncing their verdict, that the death of the deceased was caused by his having been accidentally drowned in a quarry-hole, the jury expressed an opinion that steps should be taken to place a wall round the quarry-hole in question as a safeguard against other people falling into it.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—A Coroner's inquest was held on Friday last at King's Lane, Fort, on view of the body of a woman named Suckoo, aged 33 years. Deceased was a labourer engaged in the building of a house in that locality; and at about noon on that day while going up the stair-case on to the fourth storey of the house, she missed her footing and was precipitated to the bottom of three flights of stairs on to the stone pavement of the ground-floor, a height of about thirty-two feet. She was so seriously injured that she died soon afterwards. A verdict of accidental death was recorded.

VOLUNTEER PRIZE SHOOTING AT POONA.—The competition for prizes offered by Lieutenant Lyons, of the Barrack Department, took place on Thursday morning. There was a very good attendance of both G and H Companies, the latter showing a larger number of competitors in the field. The weather was not favourable, but still very good scores were made, and the majority of the prizes were carried off by the H Company. The following are the results:—

Volunteer J. Carvalho	31	A cup valued at Rs. 60
Corporal Mawhood	30	„	„ 25
Volunteer J. Lyons	29	„	„ 15
Sergeant A. Murray	29	„	„ 10
Volunteer S. B. Brown	28	„	„ 5

The conditions were seven shots at 700 yards, and, we believe, Volunteer Carvalho scored five bulls, one centre, and one outer; Wimbledon scoring.—Deccan Herald.

ACCIDENT AT THE POONA SOLDIERS' GARDEN.—On Friday evening, while the band of the Rifle Brigade was playing at the Soldiers' Garden, one of the tandem horses driven by Lieutenant Garnett, of H. M.'s 2-15th Regiment, became restive and commenced kicking. The shafts of the carriage, together with the frame, were detached and the horses ran in amongst the carriages, and dashed against one in which Mrs. Colonel Smith and others were seated. Fortunately no injury was done to the inmates of the carriage, and the vehicle was not much damaged. Owing to the timely assistance of the soldiers and others the horses were secured. Lieutenant Garnet, who happened to be on the seat of his cart, remained there till the shafts gave way, when he was thrown on the ground, but received no serious injury. When the horses commenced kicking all was hustle and confusion, and the carriages of the visitors were driven from the garden as quickly as possible.—Poona Observer.

MOVEMENT OF TROOPS.—The B. I. S. N. Company's steamer Ellora, Captain Seward, arrived in Bombay harbour yesterday from Kurrachee with a squadron of the Poona Horse. The strength was as follows:—1 European officer, 5 native officers, 117 men, 80 followers, 119 horses, 59 ponies, and 5 bullocks. The Ellora brought also 3 officers of British regiments and 1 Inspector of the Commt. Dept., 1 apothecary, 3 followers of the 2-17th Fusiliers, 6 followers of the Med. Dept., 13 men of R. A., and 1 woman. The following are the names of officers:—Major C. M. Erskine, Poona Horse; Major F. C. Keyser, 2-7th Fusiliers; Surg.-Major O'Farrell, A.M.D.; and Surg. Reeves, I.M.D. The men landed at the Prince's Dock and will encamp at the Esplanade until the 31st instant, when they will be sent on to Kirkee by two special trains from the Boree Bunder railway station, one leaving at 7-40 and another at 8-40 a.m. The I. G. steamer Tenasserim, Capt. Creagh, with the 28th Regiment N.I., arrived in Bombay harbour yesterday from Kurrachee via Carwar, which port she left on the 23rd May at 2 p.m. She experienced rather rough weather and high winds, which gradually decreased until her arrival at Carwar on the 27th, where, after disembarking the 28th N.I., she took on board the 17th N.I., and weighed for Bombay at 4-30 p.m. on the 28th. She again experienced very strong breeze and long S. W. swells all the passage up to Bombay. The regiment will disembark at the Prince's Dock to-day, and will go on to the Boree Bunder lines.

THE BENGAL PRISONS REPORT.—Regarding the condition of the Bengal jails, of which we wrote the other day, the Indian Spectator remarks:—"It is impossible to scan without a shudder the picture of State economy presented by the Bombay Gazette of Thursday last. The article is an admirable wordpainting. There is nothing 'loud' about the colours—all is sober and matter-of-fact. The Government of Bengal publishes its Prisons Report, a copy of which reaches our faithful painter; and the painter exhibits a miniature of it. And what does this official painting show? Only this:—that the 'zealous' officials of Bengal have effected a large saving in the jail expenditure, the sum saved (that is, stolen, as the Amrita Bazar would put it) under the head of 'Dieting Prisoners' alone standing at over a lakh and a quarter of rupees. We are not aware that the diet of Indian prisoners has at any time been over-liberal; but this reduction by about 16 per cent. may mean promotion for some 'zealous' official, or officials. And what is the result on the prisoners' health of this reduction? Why, death by slow starvation, to be sure. But that is what the advocates of economy are not concerned with. If reduced ration prostrates the prisoners and they are unable to go through their allotted task, they will have a still poorer allowance of food. If this 'discipline' does not soon bring the ingrates to a sense of their duty, then they will have to be flogged till dysentery, diarrhœa, and despair put an end to their existence. But why this half-hearted policy? A few hundred prisoners dying in every district after a good deal of trouble and expense is poor economy. We could show a better way of saving money for frontier wars and State tamashas. Why not resolve that every public offender be straightway hanged? The hangman's fee is to be paid once for all, the trouble and expense of slow starvation can be avoided, and oh! it will be a much more humane course for the offender himself than the practice now in vogue of which Sir Ashley Eden's Prisons Report gives the liveliest picture."

DIVINE SERVICE.

OPEN-AIR PREACHING AT POONA.

THE following extract from a letter from a missionary at Poona has been placed at our disposeal. Had a row like what he describes taken place in Wellington-square, there might have been some pretext for the action taken by the authorities in Calcutta; but the Poona authorities seem to take a different view of their duty, and, instead of repressing the missionaries, confine their action to the rioters:—

"I have set up a few classes and make raids with my catechist upon the villages near at hand. We always unite with S—— and his catechists in the three weekly preachings in the city. I have to speak through an interpreter of course, which I do not like at all. These meetings are rather successful—first a street preaching and then a two-hours' discussion in our upstairs room with generally a good and steady audience. At present everything and everybody are in a very languishing state, waiting for the reviving rains, but one of these meetings in a strong Brahminical quarter has within the last month grown so lively that we are in real danger of having our heads broken. One cause of the excitement is the refusal of the Brahmins to allow the native Christians to draw water from the public wells. This refusal was over-ruled by the Collector; our converts got beaten, but could not convict their enemies for want of witnesses. Five were convicted last week by the help of a respectable Jew, and got severely fined. This set up the Brahminns' backs considerably. But the chief cause is the establishment, not far from our station, of a census office with about 300 Brahmin clerks, who come streaming past just as we begin our work. For the last few weeks every succeeding Wednesday has been worse than its predecessor. On Wednesday before last we were badly stoned and covered with dust and dirt. S——, poor man, was almost unrecognizable. He escaped the stones, however, of which I got four, but only one in the face. We managed to keep our tempers for a long time. At last S—— gave way, and he went in search of the police, who of course were not at hand, and having dragged two of our public guardians reluctantly to our aid, he gave three of the ringleaders in charge. An excited crowd collected round the thanna, and I found S—— haranguing them, telling them we had no ill-will against them, that we simply wanted to be allowed to do our work in peace, and that if they did not care to listen quietly to us, they were under no compulsion—the street was free, they might go—and that in token of our good-will he would request that for this time the three men he had given in charge should be set at liberty, if they would quietly disperse. A sort of promise was given, and the crowd broke up, and the men were freed. We returned to our work and went on with our programme. Last Wednesday, however, things came to a climax. We were stoned worse than ever, and they seemed determined to drive us either inside or away altogether by sheer violence. Rightly or wrongly, we made up our minds that we would not be so driven from a position that had been occupied quietly for the last three years. No police were at hand although the force in the neighbourhood had been strengthened in anticipation of a disturbance. S—— again went in search, and brought one helpless mortal back with him. He asked him to arrest one man, which he did slowly, but the crowd released him in no time. The policeman was perfectly terrified and disappeared at once. A lull took place after this episode, and we began again, but the storm blew worse than ever in a few minutes. We could not detect the men who threw the stones, otherwise we should have attempted to lay hands on them. At last a big man right in front of Mr. D—— (one of our catechists) and me, spat a big, impudent "spit" right in our faces. We resolved to lay hands on him. He saw something was to happen, and made off, but I dashed through the crowd and seized him. S—— followed and got hold of him also. The crowd got wild at this, and fell on us. I was sent off for the police again, and soon brought two with me, but S—— and D—— had lost their man. The crowd hustled him into a house into which he escaped on to the road by a back way, but only to meet me and the police. I recognised him at once, and seized him again. The crowd saw what was happening in the distance and surged down on us, but the police this time took a good businesslike grip of him and marched him off, the crowd following. The crowd being thus all drained away, we returned to our work, and here our connection with the business stops. We were getting on very quietly with a new audience when the police came beckoning on D—— and me. We went with them and found a crowd round the thanna door such as I never saw the like of. They had set on the police and freed the "spitter," but the police, reinforced to four, laid hands on one of the ring-leaders and were struggling to secure him. The fight went on for about ten minutes, till another body of burly fellows came from the police office. The ring-leader was then marched off to the central lock-up with an excited crowd of his friends following to witness his fate. We were asked to go also to tell the story of what we had seen. An angry crowd followed us to the police station, and contented themselves with words by the truncheons of several big Mahomedans. The first crowd, in their eagerness to see what became of their companion, went a little too far, and they were all caught and shut in—trapped themselves nicely. The policemen from whom the "spitter" had been freed identified fourteen of them. The others were sent off, and these were informed that they would be locked up for the night unless they could produce bail of Rs. 50 each! When D—— and I left, they were penned like a flock of sheep, looking very tame. S—— meanwhile had gone on with his meeting and discussion to the end, but in a state of great fear as to our fate, as discovered where we had gone and followed us, but we had left the place. He saw the fourteen in a very pitiable state. The men who had been stoning and spitting on him a few minutes before were now down on their faces begging for mercy. They are reckless, fierce fellows when in a crowd, but cowards individually at heart. We think they have got such a scare now as will keep them from troubling us any more, and we are doing our most to get the police to drop proceedings against them, for they are the prosecutors, not we. I think we shall succeed in getting things quietly settled."

This narrative will illustrate the importance of the principle now being contended for by the missionaries of Calcutta. If there is ground for interfering with open-air preaching here, much more is there at Poona and, if at Poona and Calcutta, the same measure will doubtless be enforced all over India, and open-air preaching will be practically stopped.—Statesman.

A FINE COBRA.—Major Stuart, Bengal S. C., writes to the Pioneer from Roorkee, May 18th:—Early this morning a very fine cobra, measuring, when dead, 4ft. 11½ inches, was killed by native servants at the north-east corner of cantonments, after a desperate struggle for his life. He kept a number of people at bay for half an hour, and charged down upon them several times, gaining ground upon his assailants each time, until a well-directed stone struck him about a foot behind the head and broke his spine. This snake has, it is believed, caused the death of several sheep and goats, who, while pasturing on his "grounds," died suddenly. After a long residence in India this one is certainly the finest specimen of a jet black cobra I have ever seen in the plains, although I shot one measuring 6 ft. 3 in. in the Sewaliks, about four miles above Mohun, some sixteen years ago. Surely the destruction of such pests is worth more than two annas a head, the present reward.

ROWLANDS' MACASSAR OIL has been known for the last 80 years as the best and safest preserver and beautifier of the hair; it contains no lead or mineral ingredients, and is especially adapted for the hair of children; sold in usual four sizes.

ROWLANDS' ODONTO is the purest and most fragrant dentifrice ever made; it whitens the teeth, prevents decay, and gives a pleasing fragrance to the breath, and the fact of its containing no acid or mineral ingredients specially adapts it for the teeth of children.

ROWLANDS' KALYDOR produces a beautifully pure and healthy complexion, eradicates freckles, tan, prickly heat, sunburn, &c., and is most cooling and refreshing to the face, hands, and arms, during hot weather. Ask any Perfumery Dealer for
